

Do you suspect that ministry could be more rewarding if you had more confidence and skills?

Do you need help in time management, leading volunteers, managing conflict, and more?

Do you want to have a driving sense of purpose for your ministry and your life?

Join us for a fundamental course...

Ministry Essentials II: Skills and Practices

(CE-SY511-12W)

The secret to parish success is less about doing more things, and more about doing the right things. This course offers parish leaders the essential principles, processes and practices for the right things. These essentials include: time management, empowering volunteers, planning for impact, team building, engaging Catholic families, leading public prayer, encouraging holiness in our youth, feeding the spiritual hungers of young adults, game-changing strategies for evangelization, leading like a servant, effective communication, forging unity through diversity, and collaborative decisions.

Class begins January 23rd, 2018

Instructors: Dennis Mahaney, MDiv, MA | Kathy Goller, MAPM | Mary Beth Coates, MAPM, MS

Tuesdays, 10:00 a.m. – Noon | Catholic Center, 795 Main St., Buffalo | Cost: $35 for all 12 sessions

(Note: a $7.00 copy fee payable to instructor accepted at the first class)
