CONTINUING EDUCATION CLASSES

SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

Sacraments and Ministry

CE-SY42-5W (½ CEU)

This course will explore the understanding of Church as sacrament and Jesus' role in the seven ritual sacraments of our Catholic faith.

Participants will grow in their understanding of the history and spirituality of each of the sacraments and will explore how this impacts our own growth in holiness as well as how we teach or practice sacramental life in our parish communities.

Instructor: Eileen Warner, MAPM

Tuesdays beginning Feb. 20, mornings 9:30 – 11:30 a.m. or evenings 6:30 – 8:30 p.m.

Location: Christ the King Seminary,
Small Dining Room ($65)

Mary in the Catholic Church

CE-SY41-5W (½ CEU)

Have you been wondering what the Catholic Church teaches about Mary? In this course we will examine questions and observations derived from current church teachings, devotions, traditions, and popular understandings of Mary. The course will utilize Scripture, the documents of Vatican II, and the most recently published articles reflecting upon Marian devotion.

Instructor: Deacon Gary Andelora, MAT
5 weeks, Tuesdays beginning Apr. 10,
6:30 – 8:30 p.m.

Location: Christ the King Seminary,
Small Dining Room ($65)

SCRIPTURE

In the Beginning: The Book of Genesis

CE-SS24-5W (½ CEU)

Within the narrative and teachings of the Hebrew Scriptures will be found the fundamental teachings of biblical revelation that formed and informed Jesus of Nazareth and the Christian Church. This first in a series of courses will examine the book of Genesis and consider the relevance of such major themes as creation, sin, and divine providence for our own lives and our own time.

Instructor: Michael Sherry, MDiv
5 weeks, Thursdays beginning Jan. 25,
1:00 – 3:00 p.m.

Location: Christ the King Seminary,
Auditorium Foyer ($65)

From the Beginning: The Gospel of John

CE-SS25-5W (½ CEU)

The product of profound theological reflection upon the life, teachings, and saving work of Jesus, the Gospel of St. John has stirred the minds, hearts, and imaginations of readers for over 20 centuries. Within the context of a living tradition and a community of believers, students will be challenged to give life to this “spiritual gospel” within their own lives in today’s world.

Instructor: Michael Sherry, MDiv
5 weeks, Thursdays beginning Feb. 8,
6:30 – 8:30 p.m.

Location: Christ the King Seminary,
Auditorium Foyer ($65)

CHURCH HISTORY

Religion in America: Faith in the Formation of the Nation

CE-HT18-10W (1 CEU)

From the pre-Colonial period, through the Civil War, and to our contemporary period, faith and organized religions have been an integral component to American values, identity, culture, and evolution. Even with a separation between church and state, religion has been pervasive in nearly all areas of American life. Examining the history and spiritual dimensions of religion, this course will analyze how trans-Atlantic influences, diversity, pluralism, and “Americanization” shaped our faith and belief systems individually and as a society.

Instructor: Paul Lubienecki, PhD
10 weeks, Wednesdays
beginning Jan. 24, 6:30 – 8:30 p.m.

Location: Christ the King Seminary,
Small Dining Room ($130)

PASTORAL STUDIES

Writing and Research for Ministry

CE-PS51-5W (½ CEU)

When was the last time you researched and wrote an academic paper? This course will serve as a refresher exercise on the necessary skills for researching and writing. It will feature helpful suggestions regarding research techniques along with grammar hints. Emphasis will be placed on punctuation, syntax, and style. This course is designed to help you in your graduate work obligations.

Instructor: Deacon Gary Andelora, MAT
5 weeks, Thursdays beginning Feb. 8.
6:30 – 8:30 p.m.

Location: Christ the King Seminary,
Administration Building Conference

PRE-THEOLOGY

Introduction to Thomas Aquinas CE-SY520-15W (2 CEU)

St. Thomas had a great zeal for learning and for teaching. His care and love for students can be seen in the opening lines of his great Summa Theologiæ, but also in polemical works such as the De Unitate Intellectus Contra Averroistas, wherein he castigates his opponents for taking advantage of students not prepared to deal with matters too great for them. He is not only a teacher but a master pedagogue. His great summæ are not simply means of communicating information but of shaping souls and forming persons both cognitively and affectively. This course is designed to shape the student into a passionate and accurate reader of St. Thomas and instill the foundations of habits for reading the Angelic Doctor.

Instructor: Mr. Eric Mabry, PhD cand.
15 weeks, Mondays beginning Jan. 22,
9:00 – 11:30 a.m.

Location: Christ the King Seminary,
Auditorium Foyer ($400)

Browsing in an Ancient Library: The Biblical Books

CE-RSI02 (1 CEU)

This course presents an overview of the books in the Old and New Testaments. The classes scan the origins and contents of selected books with an emphasis on Psalms and the Gospels. This class is a fragrance-free meeting: no perfumes, colognes, or perfumed lotions, please.

Instructor: Sr. Marion Moeser, OSF,
Professor Emerita

10 weeks, Thursdays beginning Jan. 25,
12:30 – 2:30 p.m.

Location: Christ the King Seminary,
Small Dining Room

($130)

Summer Course

ETHICS / SPIRITUALITY

Engaging with Aging—A Spiritual Journey CE-MO38-5W (½ CEU)

Using the format of the Conscious Aging Program and wisdom drawn from multiple sources, participants will explore themes of self-compassion and forgiveness, surrender-and transformative practices, and the creation of a new vision of aging in the context of our mortality and eternal destiny. This is a collaborative workshop experience and requires a readiness to make positive, life-affirming changes, to listen and to share in small and larger group settings, and commit to confidentiality around what is shared in the group experience. Workshop limited to 15 participants.

Instructor: Madalene Stafford, MS LMHC

5 weeks, Thursdays beginning May 17, 1:00 – 3:00 p.m.

Location: Christ the King Seminary, Small Dining Room

(Note: a $15 workbook fee payable to instructor will be collected at the first class) ($65)

LENTEN DINNER LECTURE

The Journey to Gethsemane in the Gospel of St. Mark

St. Mark's moving portrayal of Christ in Gethsemane in Mark 14:32-42 deals powerfully with the themes of discipleship, prayer, and sacrifice as well as the very identity of Jesus, himself. In this Year B of the Sunday cycle of readings in which St. Mark's Gospel is featured, this lecture will serve as an entry into the entire Passion narrative of the Gospel of St. Mark as we approach Palm Sunday and the celebration of the Easter Triduum.

Presenter: Msgr. Richard W. Siepka, Director of Spiritual Formation
Wednesday, March 14

Dinner at 5:30 p.m. and lecture at 6:30 p.m.

Dinner & lecture ($25), lecture only ($15)

Online registration at cks.edu/lentenlecture or by mail with the form at the back of this brochure.

WORKSHOPS, RETREATS, & SEMINARS

SPIRITUAL GROWTH OPPORTUNITIES

Group Spiritual Direction

The facilitator will guide the attendees in the understanding and process of group spiritual direction and will provide spiritual insights and questions for reflection in preparation for each session.

Facilitator: Jan Sheridan, MA
Saturdays, Feb. 17, Mar. 24, Apr. 21
10:00 – 11:00 a.m.

Location: Christ the King Seminary,
Small Dining Room
Free-will offering; attend as many as you wish.

Contemplative Prayer

Contemplative prayer, also called centering prayer, passive prayer, and prayer of quiet, is being present to God who is present to us. Each session will begin with instructions/descriptions gleaned from Thomas Keating, John Crocker, Anne Lavin, John Mergenhausen, Joyce Rupp, Ernest Larkin, John Main, Thomas Merton, and others. This disengagement from the world will lead into a 20-minute silent sitting followed by a meditative walk and a second silent sitting.

Facilitator: Jan Sheridan, MA
Wednesdays, Feb. 28, Mar. 21, Apr. 25,
and May 30, 7:30 – 8:30 p.m.

Location: Christ the King Seminary,

SPRING RETREAT

Women of the Passion

Experience a Lenten retreat into the Paschal Mystery of Christ reflecting on the female figures who were involved in the Passion. We will investigate prayerfully how their lives were transformed from the ordinary to the unexpected, thus allowing ourselves to be drawn into this mystery that still has the potential to change lives.

Presenter: Rev. Robert Wozniak

Friday through Saturday, March 16 – 17

Location: Christ the King Seminary, St. Teresa Residence Hall

Overnight $90 or Saturday only $50, Graduate students covered by formation fee.

SPRING SEMINARS

Developing a Grief & Loss Ministry

We will explore the dynamics of the grieving process and the role of ministers and a faith community in journeying with the bereaved. Discussion will focus on how to develop a support group ministry for the parish or vicariate as well as additional bereavement ministry offerings and annual remembrance options for those who are grieving. Parish staff members or volunteers are encouraged to attend and bring these ideas and resources back to their parish communities.

Presenter: Eileen Warner, MAPM

Saturday, March 10, 9:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Location: Christ the King Seminary, Small Dining Room

($25) Includes lunch, graduate students covered by formation fee

Christ the King Seminary is chartered by the Education Department of the State University of New York, and accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools, and by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada.

About Our CONTINUING EDUCATION Program

Christ the King Seminary offers a comprehensive continuing education program for those who wish to enrich their Christian lives, increase their knowledge of theology and scripture, or better prepare for ministry. Many students attend classes purely for personal enrichment; others choose to pursue a Certificate of Continuing Education in Theological Studies.

The Certificate of Continuing Education in Theological Studies is awarded to a student after the successful completion of 12 CEUs (continuing education courses/units). If you would like further information on earning a certificate, contact Douglas George, Director of Lay Formation at (716) 655 7091.

PERSONAL ENRICHMENT

Students opting to take continuing education courses for personal enrichment are not required to complete tests, papers or assignments and therefore do not receive a grade. A previously non-graded course will not be considered for CEU's toward a certificate.

PAYMENT DUE AT TIME OF REGISTRATION:

Complete credit card information or make check payable to Christ the King Seminary. Mail registration form & check to: Christ the King Seminary, Attn: Academic Office, PO Box 607, East Aurora, NY 14052-0607.
